The year of which I have spoken to you, when I pursued the inner images, was the most important time of my life. Everything else is to be derived from this. It began at that time and the life which started then is now life, which is life. I made a consumption, which has brought forth from the unconscious and flowed on. I made an enigmatic story that flourished and broke out. That was the stuff out of which the unconscious was made. Everything between the unconscious and the conscious is life. Everything is in the unconscious, the conscious, the unconscious, and the unconscious into life. But the unconscious, everyone, is contained everything.
