VERSE 4

On this day awake with gladness!

Play small notes if needed Rise and sing this happy dawn! Joy has come to banish sadness: Love to light the world is born, world is born.
